LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

ANTHONY D. IVANKOVICH

I, ANTHONY D. IVANKOVICH, a resident of Miami-Dade County, Florida, revoke all prior Wills and publish the following as my Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE 1
FAMILY

I am married to OLGA IVANKOVICH, who is referred to as "my wife" in this Will. My wife and I are both citizens of the United States. My wife and I have two children, DANIEL IVANKOVICH ("Daniel") and STEVEN IVANKOVICH ("Steven"). References to "my children" mean only Daniel and Steven; references to "my descendants" mean my children and their descendants.

ARTICLE 2
SPECIFIC GIFTS OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

I make the following gifts:

2.1 Separate List for Tangible Personal Property. I may make gifts of tangible personal property by means of one or more separate written lists. To be effective, a separate list must be signed by me, and must identify the items and persons to receive them with reasonable certainty. If there is a conflict, I confirm the gift of that item made in the most recent list. My Personal Representative will not be bound by any written list produced or discovered more than two (2) months after my death.

2.2 Other Gifts. I give all my remaining tangible personal property not given by other provisions of this article, including furniture, household furnishings, motor vehicles, clothing, jewelry, and personal effects (together with all insurance on those items), to my wife if she survives me. If my wife does not survive me, I give all of those items, together with all insurance on them, to those of my children who survive me, in shares as nearly equal in value as is reasonably practical.

2.3 Special Terms. All gifts of tangible personal property under this article are subject to the following conditions.

(a) Division by Personal Representative. If the persons entitled to these items cannot agree upon a division within six (6) months after my death, my Personal Representative shall divide these items in its discretion among those persons, and that division will be conclusive and binding.

NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS - NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCES

(b) Delivery Expenses. All expenses of storage (before distribution), packing, shipping, insurance, delivery, and other reasonable and necessary charges in distributing these items are to be paid as an expense of administration of my estate.

(c) Alternate Gift to Charity. If all beneficiaries under this article disclaim their interest in any of these items, my Personal Representative shall distribute those disclaimed items to any one or more Exempt Organizations. The selection of specific organizations and the items allocated between them, if more than one, will be determined by my Personal Representative in its discretion.

ARTICLE 3
DEVISE OF HOMESTEAD

I give all my interest in any real property that qualifies as my homestead under Article X, Section 4 of the Florida Constitution to my wife if she survives me.

ARTICLE 4
RESIDUARY ESTATE

I give all my Residuary Estate to the then serving trustee of the Anthony D. Ivankovich Estate Trust dated February 19, 1996, as amended and restated in its entirety on September 2, 2008 and as further amended and restated in its entirety today prior to the execution of this Will, as it now exists or may be amended after the execution of this Will (referred to in this Will as "my Revocable Trust"), for administration under its terms. If the gift to my Revocable Trust is ineffective for any reason, I give all my Residuary Estate to the Trustee upon the same terms and conditions set forth in my Revocable Trust as of this date. I incorporate those terms by reference, but only for the purpose of this contingent gift.

ARTICLE 5
APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

I appoint my wife and THE GOLDMAN SACHS TRUST COMPANY, N.A. ("Goldman") to serve as my Co-Personal Representatives. If my wife fails or ceases to serve, I appoint Goldman to serve as my sole Personal Representative. There must be at least one Corporate Personal Representative serving at all times. A Personal Representative will be entitled to reasonable compensation. I direct that no Personal Representative be required to post bond or other security.

ARTICLE 6
SURVIVAL PROVISIONS

If my wife and I die under circumstances in which there is insufficient evidence to determine the order of our deaths, my wife will be deemed to have survived me for all purposes, including the determination of ownership of all nonprobate assets (to the extent not otherwise prohibited by law). If any beneficiary (other than my wife) is required to survive me or another person to receive a distribution, and if the beneficiary does not survive me or that other person by ninety (90) days, or if that beneficiary cannot be located within one year after my death despite reasonable attempts by my Personal Representative to locate that beneficiary, the beneficiary will be treated as if he or she died before me or that other person.

ARTICLE 7
PAYMENTS OF OBLIGATIONS, EXPENSES, AND TAXES

My Personal Representative shall pay all of my obligations, expenses, and taxes as follows:

7.1 Obligations. I direct that my legally enforceable obligations (except those secured by mortgages or other security instruments) be paid in the order and manner prescribed by law.

7.2 Expenses and Taxes. The term "expenses" includes all estate transmission or management expenses of my probate estate and all costs of my last illness and funeral; the term "estate taxes" means all state and federal estate, inheritance, or transfer taxes payable by reason of my death (including the generation-skipping transfer tax on any direct skip created by the express terms of this Will rather than by disclaimer), plus any related interest and penalties attributable to these taxes, but excluding any other generation-skipping taxes. I direct that all expenses of my estate and all estate taxes charged with respect to my gross estate for estate tax purposes (including estate taxes on assets that do not pass under this Will) be paid by the trustee of my Revocable Trust, as permitted under Section 733.817 and despite Section 738.201(2)(c) of the Florida Statutes. For these purposes, I incorporate by reference the tax apportionment provisions of my Revocable Trust. To the extent these amounts are not paid by my Revocable Trust, they are to be paid from my Residuary Estate, without apportionment, except to the extent provided in my Revocable Trust as to nonprobate and nontaxable assets.

ARTICLE 8
FIDUCIARY POWERS

I grant to my Personal Representative and the Trustee (collectively referred to as the "Fiduciary") full power to deal freely with any property in my estate. The Fiduciary may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Fiduciary need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Fiduciary however, shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity in good faith, as a prudent person would using reasonable care, skill, and caution, for the best interest of the beneficiaries of my estate, which for purposes of this article includes any trust created in this Will. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Fiduciary is given the following powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

8.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Fiduciary deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Fiduciary deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Fiduciary acts in good faith.

NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS - NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCES

8.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to collect and retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Fiduciary.

8.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Fiduciary or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

8.4 Financial Accounts. To deposit trust money in one or more accounts in regulated financial service institutions, including but not limited to banks, savings institutions, and brokerage houses, and to draw checks, drafts, or other forms of withdrawal, including electronic transfers, from those accounts.

8.5 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, whether obtained in domestic or foreign markets, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, and currencies; to invest in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Fiduciary or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as manager, custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Fiduciary, its affiliates, or syndicates of which it is a member and I specifically authorize the Trustee to invest in the instruments described in Section 736.0802(5) of the Florida Statutes (including assets other than qualified investment instruments) without notice to or consent from any beneficiary; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of my estate for that purpose.

8.6 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Fiduciary deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to grant, acquire, or exercise options; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in my estate which has little or no monetary or useful value, after notifying the beneficiaries or their legal representatives; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, including conservation easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Fiduciary sees fit. An instrument described in this section will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of my estate.

8.7 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Fiduciary in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

8.8 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Fiduciary in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds.

NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS - NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS

However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in my estate may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Fiduciary, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

8.9 Digital Assets and Access. To access and control all of my assets held in digital or virtual form (such as music, pictures, account credits, virtual money, etc.); to access my financial accounts protected by web-based logins and passwords; to have access to my web-based accounts with service providers such as email, memberships in organizations or commercial enterprises, and social media, all of which require a user name and password for access; and to direct all persons or entities handling such data to deal with him or her, even to the extent of compelling the provider to reset my information to data of my Fiduciary's choosing.

8.10 Communications. To access communications sent to or intended for me, or sent by me, whether by mail, email, electronic transmission, telephone, or other means.

8.11 Insurance. To obtain property, casualty, liability or any other insurance for the Trust, including insurance for the Fiduciary and its agents against damage or liability arising from administration of the Trust.

8.12 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for my estate) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the domiciliary estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings. The Fiduciary may serve in any of these capacities and be compensated separately for its services in each.

8.13 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age twenty one (21) or to any person the Fiduciary reasonably believes is incapacitated according to the terms of this Will by (i) making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Fiduciary or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; (ii) managing the amount as a separate fund on that person's behalf, subject to his or her continuing right to withdraw that amount; or (iii) applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Fiduciary deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Fiduciary with respect to that payment.

8.14 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

8.15 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

8.16 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent (the "Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Fiduciary but at the expense of my estate, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Fiduciary or any person rendering services to my estate; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Fiduciary may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Fiduciary will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Fiduciary be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

8.17 Administer Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against my estate, including paying those claims in full; to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement; and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

8.18 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Fiduciary), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

8.19 Business Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Fiduciary deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

8.20 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Fiduciary, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of my estate. Despite any other provision of this Will, no Fiduciary may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Fiduciary. No Fiduciary who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Fiduciary, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property, except pursuant to an ascertainable standard. All power to make such unlimited distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Fiduciaries, if any, or if there are no other Fiduciaries then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Fiduciary, or if there are none, by a special Fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

8.21 Elections. To perform in a fiduciary capacity any act and make any and all decisions or elections under state law or the Internal Revenue Code on behalf of me or my estate, including but not limited to, joining in the filing of income and gift tax returns with my wife, claiming the whole or any part of the expenses of administration as income tax deductions for my estate, electing the marital deduction in whole or in part, making allocations of my exemption from the federal generation-skipping transfer tax, adopting alternate values for estate tax purposes, and selecting taxable years and dates of distribution. The Fiduciary is specifically excused from making equitable adjustments among beneficiaries because of any election.

8.22 Qualified Property. To manage any qualified real property or qualified family-owned business interests so as to avoid imposition of the additional estate tax under Sections 2032A or 2057 of the Internal Revenue Code, and to furnish security for the payment of any additional estate taxes imposed under those sections.

8.23 Expenses. To pay all expenses of administration for the Trust Estate, including all taxes, assessments, compensation of the Fiduciary and its employees and agents, and reimbursements for expenses advanced (with interest as appropriate). An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

8.24 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion, without court approval, to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust to include the types of distributions described in Section 8.13 to the beneficiaries then entitled to receive income in proportion to their shares of that income (or on a per capita basis if their shares are not fixed) in a manner consistent with the purposes of the Trust. The Fiduciary shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the qualified beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by my wife or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

8.25 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, including the allocation of some or all of the net capital gain to the beneficiaries as if it were fiduciary accounting income. The Trustee in its discretion may treat any discretionary distributions of principal as being paid first from realized capital gains. In addition, the Trustee may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

8.26 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Will, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of my estate to satisfy the liabilities described in this Will, without accountability to any beneficiary.

8.27 Sever or Join Trusts. To sever any trust on a fractional basis into two or more separate trusts, and to segregate by allocation to a separate account or trust a specific amount from, a portion of, or a specific asset included in any trust. The Fiduciary may consolidate two or more trusts (including trusts created by different transferors) having substantially the same beneficial terms and conditions into a single trust. The Fiduciary may take into consideration differences in federal tax attributes and other pertinent factors in administering any separate account or trust, in making applicable tax elections, and in making distributions. A trust created by severance or consolidation will be treated as a separate trust for all purposes from the date on which the severance or consolidation is effective (which may be before the exercise of this power), and will be held on the same beneficial terms and conditions as those before the severance or consolidation. Income earned on a consolidated or severed amount, portion, or specific asset after the consolidation or severance is effective will pass with that amount, portion, or specific asset.

8.28 Consolidated Funds. Unless inconsistent with other provisions of this Will, to hold two or more trusts or other funds in one or more consolidated funds, in which the separate trusts or funds have undivided interests, except that an accounting must be rendered to each trust showing its undivided interests in those funds.

8.29 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Will to be valued as of a particular date, to use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Fiduciary's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Fiduciary's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

8.30 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Fiduciary determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

8.31 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of my estate.

8.32 Loans; Advances. To make loans to anyone under commercially reasonable terms, and to make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security. The Fiduciary may retain a lien on future distributions to a beneficiary to repay those loans.

8.33 Election of Benefits. To select a mode of payment under any employee benefit or retirement plan, annuity, or life insurance payable to the trustee, exercise rights under such plan, annuity, or insurance, including exercise of the right to indemnification for expenses and against liabilities, and take appropriate action to collect the proceeds.

8.34 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Fiduciary and to handle all investments of my estate and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Fiduciary is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

8.35 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

8.36 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Fiduciary is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

8.37 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of my estate despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Fiduciary, or of which the Fiduciary, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Fiduciary, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Fiduciary; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Will acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

8.38 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Fiduciary has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of my estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and

NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS - NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS

- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

8.39 Winding Up. On termination of a trust, to exercise the powers appropriate to wind up the administration of that trust and distribute the remaining assets to the persons entitled to them, and to retain a reasonable reserve for the payment of debts, expenses, and taxes.

ARTICLE 9
TAX ELECTIONS

I direct my Personal Representative to make federal estate and generation-skipping tax elections as instructed by the trustee of my Revocable Trust with respect to transfers under that trust. My Personal Representative is to be held harmless from any liability in making elections as directed by that trustee.

ARTICLE 10
NONMUTUAL WILL

This is not a mutual or reciprocal Will with any Will executed by my wife. She may amend, revoke, or redraw her Will at any time, regardless of any interest she may receive under this Will.

ARTICLE 11
TRANSACTIONS WITH OTHER ENTITIES

My Personal Representative may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. My Personal Representative can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions my Personal Representative thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

ARTICLE 12
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12.1 Definitions. As used in this Will, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.

(b) Exempt Organization means an organization contributions to which are deductible under Sections 2055 and 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS - NOT AN OFFICIAL COPY - PUBLIC ACCESS

(c) Residuary Estate means my estate left after paying all pre-residuary gifts in this Will and all expenses and charges (other than estate taxes).

(d) The term Trustee refers to my Personal Representative, acting as trustee for any trust created in this Will. When serving as Trustee, my Personal Representative will have all the powers granted to trustees under Florida law, as well as the powers specified in this Will.

(e) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Will and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that my Personal Representative must take the action indicated; as used in this Will, the word may means that my Personal Representative has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

12.2 Lapsed Gifts. If any gift is conditioned on the recipient surviving me or another person and no alternative disposition of that gift is specified, the gift will lapse and become part of my Residuary Estate if the designated recipient does not survive.

12.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Will shall exercise that power by a written instrument witnessed by two impartial persons, clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

12.4 Certifications.

(a) From Trustee. For some purposes, my Personal Representative is instructed to rely on a certificate from the trustee of my Revocable Trust as to certain tax elections and other matters. That certificate must be in writing and witnessed by two impartial persons, but need not be notarized. It is to be delivered to my Personal Representative in the same fashion as provided for other notices.

(b) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by my Personal Representative or the Trustee stating any fact affecting this Will, my estate, or any trust will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with my Personal Representative or the Trustee. My Personal Representative or the Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the estate beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Personal Representative or Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false. Knowledge of all other facts will be determined as provided in Section 736.0104 of the Florida Statutes.

(c) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by any person specifically named as a Personal Representative or Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

12.5 Dispute Resolution. If there is a dispute or controversy of any nature involving the disposition or administration of my estate, I direct the parties in dispute to submit the matter to mediation or some other method of alternative dispute resolution selected by them. If a party refuses to submit the matter to alternative dispute resolution, or if a party refuses to participate in good faith, I authorize the court having jurisdiction over my estate to award costs and attorney's fees from that party's beneficial share or from other amounts payable to that party (including amounts payable to that party as compensation for service as fiduciary) as in chancery actions.

12.6 Effect of Adoption. A legally adopted child (and any descendants of that child) will be regarded as a descendant of the adopting parent only if the petition for adoption was filed with the court before the child's thirteenth birthday. If the legal relationship between a parent and child is terminated by a court while the parent is alive, that child and that child's descendants will not be regarded as descendants of that parent. If a parent dies and the legal relationship with that deceased parent's child had not been terminated before that parent's death, the deceased parent's child and that child's descendants will continue to be regarded as descendants of the deceased parent even if the child is later adopted by another person.

12.7 Infant in Gestation. For all purposes of this Will, an infant in gestation who is later born alive will be deemed to be in being during the period of gestation for the purpose of qualifying the infant, after it is born, as a beneficiary of my estate.

12.8 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Will are to be governed by Florida law.

12.9 Gender and Number. Reference in this Will to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires.

12.10 Headings. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.
